

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Over the River.

BY IRENE RANCH, IN MEMORY OF HER TWO LITTLE SISTERS.

Over the river they beak on to me—
Loved ones who've crossed to the other side;
The clean of their snowy robes I see,
But their voices are drowned in the rushing tide
There's one with ringlets of sunny gold,
And eyes the reflection of heaven's own hue;
She crossed in the dawn, of a Sabbath morn,
And the pale mist hid her from mortal view.
We saw not the angels who met Rachie there,
The gates of the city we could not see;
Over the river, over the river,
My sister stands waiting to welcome me.
Over the river, the boat-man pale
Carried another—the household pet.
Her brown curls waved in the gentle gale—
Darling Ivy! I see her yet.
She crossed on her bosom her dimpled hands,
And fearlessly entered the phantom bark;
We watched it glide from the silver sands,
And all our sunshine grew strangely dark.
We know she is safe on the other side
Where all the ransomed and angels be;
Over the river, the mistic river,
My childhood's idol is waiting for me.
And I sit and think, when the sunsets gold,
Is flushing river, and hill and shore,
I shall one day stand by the water cold
And list for the sound of the boat-man's oar
I shall watch for a gleam of the flapping sail;
I shall hear the boat as it gains the strand;
I shall pass from sight with the boat-man pale,
To the better shore of the spirit land;
I shall know the loved who have gone before—
And joyfully sweet will the meeting be,
When over the river, the peaceful river,
The angel of Death shall carry me.

DEAR EDITOR:—I enjoy hearing the little letters read in the EVANGELIST. I am seven years old. Our school commences next Monday. I have two brothers, Freddie and Charlie. I will send ten cents for Company A.

Good by,
ROSA L. GRISSE.

Sidney, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write for the Children's Column, as I have not written for a long time. I am nine years old. Our school closed the 16th of Feb. Our teacher gave us each a nice present, and we had a nice time. I have six sisters and two brothers. My pa, ma, six sisters and two brothers belong to the Brethren church. I will be very glad when summer comes so I can go out and help fix up the flowers. Bro. Josiah Keim and J. L. Kimmel was here to visit us. We would have been very glad to have them stay longer. We have preaching on the Benshoff hill every three weeks by Bro. Smouse. He is a good preacher and we like him very much. I will close by asking a question: How often does everlasting punishment occur in the Bible? If I see this in print, I will write again. From your little friend and reader,

ANNIE BENSHOFF.

Johnstown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write again for the Children's Column. I like to read the little letters in your paper. I do not go to school now, for our school is out. Our Sunday School commenced the first Sunday in April. I have not gone yet but expect to. We have nice weather now. I will try to answer Nettle M. Snyder's question: Moses' wife's name was Zipporah. I will close by asking a question: How long did the children of Israel mourn for Moses?

MINNIE L. BISHOP.

Rockwell City, Kan.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I have been going to school all this winter. I was seven years old, the 6th of Feb. School was out last Friday. I study Third Reader, Spelling, Arithmetic. I have three little brothers. Pa, ma and grandma belong to the Brethren church. Grandma lives with us. I will answer and ask a question: Where is grandmother mentioned in the Bible? I will answer Lucian G. Leedy's question: For the love of money is the root of all evil. 1 Tim. 6:10. I will close by sending ten cents for the Ashland College. Good by for this time.

ARTHUR H. MILLER.

Rome, Kan.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am nine years old. This is a lovely spring day. Our school will begin in another week. We have a new school house just built last summer. I have a sister twelve and a little brother seven years old, to go to school with me. I have one big sister at home and one married living in—Ia. I have one big brother studying dentistry in Waterloo. My two oldest sisters and brother belong to the Brethren church also pa and ma. We have a good Sunday School. Pa is chorister in Sunday School and church. I will answer Lucian G. Leedy's question: The love of money is the root of all evil. I wish to join Company A. I will enclose 10 cents for the Ashland College. Good by.

From your little friend,

MAUDIE HILDEBRAND.

Hudson, Iowa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my second attempt to write for the EVANGELIST. I will be ten years old, the 16th of June. I have four brothers and two sisters. My papa is a minister of the Gospel, and is away in the Redbank congregation preaching at this time. I am pleased to see the children taking so much interest in asking and answering Bible questions. I will now try to answer Homer A. Hetric's question: It reads like this: Will Etta Wampler tell us what Samson's riddle is? Out of the eater came forth meat and out of the strong came forth sweetness, so reads the riddle. Does Homer want me to expand the riddle? If so, behold there was a swarm of bees and honey in the carcass of the lion. Now will Homer please tell us who was Samson's wife, and what was her name? I will close with best wishes for the success of the EVANGELIST. Good by,

ETTA WAMPLER.

Blanco, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am eleven years old, and my next birthday will be the 27th of May. J. A. Miller preached for us eleven sermons. We like him very much. I wish he would come back again. I go to Sunday School. My teacher is Mrs. Kisler. Rev. Fitzgerald is our preacher Pa and ma belong to the Brethren church. Our church is about one mile from our house. I have two sisters and one brother and one brother dead. I will close by asking a question: What people never drank strong drinks? Excuse my mistakes. Good by,

B. PEARL FISHTORN.

Bunker Hill, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I will be nine years old, the last day of June. I like to hear the little letter read, as I cannot read very well. I have to get ma to read them for me. I have two sisters and one brother. I have one brother dead. Our school is out. Our teacher's name was B. C. Bearmont. Our Sunday School was re-organized the 1st of April. I have not missed a Sunday yet and will try not to. Ma is my teacher. I read in the Primer. Bro. G. Gasaway is our superintendent and D. Shirek assistant. Pa and ma belong to the Brethren church. J. A. Miller was here and preached four sermons. We liked him very much. I wish he would come back again. I will close by asking a question: To what tribe was no importance given? Good by,

CORA FISHTORN.

Bunker Hill, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am eleven years old. My papa and grandpa both take the EVANGELIST, and I like to read the children's letters. I have one brother and one sister. I did not go to school much this winter. My studies were Reading, Spelling, Geography, Grammar, Arithmetic and Writing. Our Sunday School was organized last Sunday. Please excuse all mistakes. Good by,

CARRIE F. RUBLE.

McVeytown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my second attempt to write for the Children's Column. I like to read the little letters. My little sister Annie wrote one too. I was twelve years old, last September. Our school has closed. I studied Reading, Spelling, Writing, Arithmetic, Grammar, Geography and Physiology. I want to belong to Company A. Find enclosed ten cents for Ashland College. Pa, ma, six sisters, one brother and I belong to the Brethren church. Pa takes the EVANGELIST. We live five miles from Johnstown. I will close by asking a question: How many times is everlasting fire mentioned in the Bible? Excuse bad writing. If this escapes the waste basket, I may write again. Yours truly,

GEORGE W. BENSHOFF.

Johnstown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I read the little letters in your paper and feel a little jealous to think that there is not any letters from Philadelphia. And yet Bro. McFaden our pastor baptized quite a number of our Sunday School scholars and I am one of them. Why can't we too tell the brethren of our happy little band. We have not a very large congregation, but we are live workers and love to work for Jesus. I wish to become a member of Company A, so inclosed you will find ten cents. I will close for this time.

Your friend,

LYDIA MARKLEY.

Phila., Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will write and send ten cents for Company A. I will answer a question: The word God is not found in the Song of Solomon. Yours truly,

MAY STATLER.

Butler, O.

DEAR EDITOR:—My papa takes the EVANGELIST, and we like it very well. Our school began yesterday. Our teacher's name is Miss Ella Cooney. I am 11 years old. I have three brothers and three sisters. Victoria and I will each send ten cents for the Ashland College fund. Yours truly

RURH F. VISTRAND.

Youngsville, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write another letter for the Children's Column. I sent in ten cents for the College. I see you have received it and my name is in the Roll of Honor. I went to school this winter. My studies were Reading, Arithmetic and Spelling. I learn fast. I am not very strong. My mother was sick nearly all winter and is not well yet. I have one brother and two sisters. My pa is a minister of the Brethren church. My mother belongs to the Evangelical church. Bro. J. W. Smouse is our minister. I go to Sunday School at this place. The Methodist have the S. S. I will be 8 years old, in June. I hope this will escape the waste basket. No more for this time. Good by,

ETTIE REIGHARD.

Mineral Points, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my second attempt to write for your paper. We are having beautiful weather here at present. I went to school all winter. It is out now and will begin in a week. I go to S. S. every Sunday. We only have about three blocks to go. We re-elected officers last Sabbath. I have three sisters and two brothers living and one little brother dead. His name was Charles Henry. I was over to my grandma's and grandpa's Wednesday and came home Thursday. I had a good visit with them and helped grandma iron. I will close by sending ten cents to the Ashland College, so that I may become a member of Company A. Good by. Your little reader,

GERTRUDE HILDEBRAND.

Hudson, Ia.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for a long time for the Children's Column, I thought I would like to write again. Our school closed the 23rd of March. Mr. John W. Saum was my teacher. I liked him very much. I will tell you who my desk mates were. Hester Spoot and Lillie Wisman. She has the whooping cough very bad. My studies were Reading, Writing, Spelling, Arithmetic. The teacher gave four prizes the last day of school. He gave the one that had the most head marks and the one that came the most days. I got one of the prizes. I never missed a day this winter. I am nine years old. I have one sister. She is thirteen years old, and one brother. He is five years old. Ma belongs to the Brethren church. I would like to see a letter from one of my cousins. The mountain is on fire. It looks gloomy out this evening. I will close by asking a question: Where is apron mentioned in the Bible? If this escapes the waste basket, I may write again.

Good by,

CLARA R. BAKER.

St. Luke, Va.

DEAR EDITOR:—I hear of so many little folks writing letters for the paper. I am six years old. I cannot write but mamma will write for me. I want to join Company A. Will send my ten cents. I went to school this winter. My teacher's name was John McAnly. I liked him very well. My studies were Reading and Spelling. I did not miss one day this winter. Think I shall go to school this summer. Our teacher will be Miss Annie Hetric. I was at church last night. J. B. Wampler preached. My mamma and my oldest brother belong to the Brethren church. I have three brothers and one sister. If I see this in print, perhaps I may write again.

FRANKIE BUZARD.

Oakland, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would try and write for the Children's Column. I am going to school every day. My teacher's name is William Griffith. I like him for a teacher very well. We moved from the farm on a little place that belongs to pa's brother. There will be lots of work for me to do after while. Good by,

SADIE RESSLER.
